West Corporation Acquires Notified

April 15, 2019

OMAHA, Neb., April 15, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- West Corporation (“West” or the “Company”), a global leader in technology-enabled services, announced today it has acquired NSO Group AB, d.b.a. Notified (“Notified”), a Swedish-based provider of a complete suite of cloud media monitoring and measurement tools.

The Notified platform offers an integrated solution for public relations, communications and digital media. Products include media monitoring with robust search capabilities and automatic sentiment analysis; an extensive global contact database of media and influencers with integrated customer relationship management (CRM) capabilities; press release distribution; the ability to re-use content generated by customers to complement and enrich marketing campaigns; and measurement tools to better understand the performance of media initiatives.

“Notified is one of the most innovative public relations platforms with top-tier clients and over 10,000 users,” said Ben Chodor, President of West’s Digital Media Solutions. “In this hyper-connected world, access to end-to-end communications solutions becomes even more important. We continue to add capabilities that help our clients gain efficiencies and effectiveness to drive positive business outcomes for their organizations.”

With the proliferation of digital media, communications have becoming more complex and demanding. West enhances business communications by enabling organizations to create and deliver critical information in a manner that results in measurable and more authentic connections. This acquisition not only provides West clients with additional listening and monitoring capabilities, but also a fully integrated, unified and automated communications solution suite.
