

Intrado Gifts SchoolMessenger Solutions to NYC's TEAK Fellowship

February 24, 2020

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 24, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Intrado Corporation, ("Intrado" or the "Company") a global leader in technology-enabled services, today announced that the Company has entered into a long-term relationship to provide SchoolMessenger solutions to The TEAK Fellowship.

"Intrado is proud to support The TEAK Fellowship in their mission to help talented New York City students from low-income families reach their potential," said Nancy Disman, Chairman of the Intrado Foundation and Intrado's Chief Financial Officer. "TEAK's free program is consistent with the Intrado Foundation's mission to further health, wellness, and education in the communities in which we work, live, and serve our customers."

Intrado is working closely with TEAK to optimize utilization of SchoolMessenger, the world's largest K-12 communications network, to deliver features and innovations that maximize communication effectiveness. Students, parents, and advisors will be connected via SchoolMessenger's mobile application, rapid text message capability, emergency advisories, group messaging, automated voice invites, appointment reminders, two-way chat, interactive surveys, and newsletter capabilities.

"I am delighted by Intrado's generous technology gift," stated TEAK Executive Director, John F. Green. "SchoolMessenger is a trusted platform for many schools in the country and not only will it advance our ability to communicate with and engage our network of students, parents, schools, and mentors, it will save us significant time as well."

About Intrado Corporation
